Hyvong came to the consensus to nominate Frank for the following reasons:

Our community has seen Frank grow in his spirituality and formation in the last few years. He is passionate in living the CLC way of life and is a good example and role model. Frank has good organization skills as we witness him serve as a National Coordinator for S.E.E.D., planning and coordinating S.E.E.D. retreats, organizing and planning meetings for young adults and youth groups in Virginia. Frank is a humble leader and he knows how to work with adults, young adults, and kids! We believe Frank is a good bridge between generations which is important for older seasoned adults and young adults which is a much-needed attribute for our times.
